

THE RUNNING MARE

PUB, DINING & GARDEN

English Fizz at The Running Mare

English Sparking wine is growing ever more in popularity, giving Champagne a run for its money, and often winning over them in blind tastings. We have the weather, the chalky soils, and the knowledge, now all we need is more people to get tasting these quality Sparkles!

Chapel Down Three Graces 2010/11, Kent, England

A blend of Chardonnay, Pinot Noir and Pinot Meunier (the same grapes used in Champagne), this wine has aromas of ripe red apple, buttered brioche and toasted hazelnuts followed by a rich palate and elegant finish. The perfect aperitif. £34.00

Furleigh Estate Rosé, Dorset, England

(Gold Trophy winner at the IWC 2016)
60% Chardonnay, 35% Pinot Noir, 5% Pinot Meunier, this delicate rosé has an abundance of red berry fruits and makes for a perfect summer time drink. Try it with seafood, particularly prawns. £39.00

English Wines at The Running Mare

Chapel Down is now a player on the world wine scene. Try their wines for something truly British, light, refreshing and zingy.

Chapel Down Bacchus, Kent, England

"Bacchus is England's answer to Sauvignon Blanc". This wine is crisp and light with flavours of gooseberry and nettle leading to a long refreshing finish.

175ml	250ml	Bottle
£7.25	£8.95	£27.00

Chapel Down English Rose, Kent, England

This dry and pale rosé has the balance of soft summer fruits, creamy vanilla notes and a refreshingly crisp finish. Strawberries and cream in a glass.

175ml	250ml	Bottle
£6.80	£7.25	£24.95